

SEVEN QUESTIONS
THAT RATTLE IN THE
MINDS OF MOST MEN

SESSION 4

The fourth question that rattles in the minds of most men is, Why Am I Here? The big idea is that we were created on purpose for a purpose. This conversation is about meaning, purpose, and life. We'll look at the "Big Five" roles of men in life, marriage, family, work, and church. Count on some very good conversations.

Session 4 - Warm Up

1. On which area of the "Big Five" are you most focused? How are you strong in that area?

Session 4 - Discussion Questions

1. For you, which two areas of the "Big Five" tend to come into conflict with each other?
2. Do you see working on yourself as a good thing, or does it seem selfish?
3. If it's true that God created you on purpose and for a purpose. . . what do you think your purpose is?

We are halfway through these (7) questions. Stay the course, men. I believe it's worth it.
