WIN WITH OTHERS

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up.

ECCLESIASTES 4:9-10

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT

1. Why do you think men tend to compete with one another?
2. In the past, what area(s) of life have you felt the greatest temptation to compare yourself to others (career, sports, family, material things, etc.)?
3. Have you ever benefited from having other men around you to push, challenge, or encourage you? What impact did they have on you?
4. Is there another man in your life now who is looking at your blind spots? Does he have the freedom to share with you what he sees?
5. John challenged us to “take a step, find a few, and open up.” How do you respond to that challenge? What next steps could you take?

*Friendship is born at that moment when one person says to another,
“What! You too? I thought I was the only one.”*
